NORDIC IDEAS AGAIN

Anglo-Saxon culture boosted by Jerseyan

By RICHARD O. SHAFER

From fighting to free German war criminals to preaching the gospel of "Anglo-Saxon American culture" is the not-so-broad jump taken recently by H. Keith Thompson, 30-year-old Chatham business man.

Thompson's newest venture in political ideology is as national chairman of the American Committee for the advancement of Western Culture.

As he outlined the committee's aims in an interview yesterday, Thompson drew a Hitlerian picture of Nordic supremacy in the world fight against Communism.

ZIONISM A TARGET

There were also rumblings of the pre-World War II isolationist cry of the America-Firsters.

Here's how Thompson described the aims of his new-born committee:

"This will be strictly an American group with representation in various major cities, dedicated to a vigorous fight in behalf of the traditional Nordic Anglo-Saxon American culture and against the encroachment of Communism and alien cultures."

Thompson makes no bones about world Zionism being the committee's major target. His chief complaint against the way the free world is fighting Communism is this:

SAYS HE'S NOT ANTI-SEMITIC

"I am against powerful Jewish pressure groups, financed by American dollars, trying to influence American foreign policy."

He appears to be unaware of the anomaly of his position: that he is the head of a pressure group trying to do what he charges Jewish groups with doing.

Thompson's argument is that the "world Jewish community" is costing America valuable allies in the struggle against Communism—that its influence forced this country into World War II, is blocking the rebuilding of West Germany, and is alienating the friendship of Arab and other nations and driving them toward Communism.

That, Thompson said, is the gospel he will preach throughout America.

Despite all this, Thompson, a handsome six-footer who looks like a college football hero, insists he is not anti-Semitic.

HARD TO FIGURE OUT

"To criticize people for their race or their religion is unfair," he said. "But to use one's religion for political purposes is insincere and wrong."

Thompson is a difficult young man to figure out. He was born in Orange and his family goes back to Revolutionary days. He is a Taft Republican, a graduate of Yale, Class of 1946, and a bachelor who lives with his mother at 380 Main st., Chatham.

Here's how the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, described him recently:

"There's no simple approach to telling how he got that way. Thompson . . . had a pleasant enough boyhood. His father, a successful New York business man, provided the material comforts moderately well.

WENT TO DREW

Thompson went to Drew University and then served in the U. S. Navy during World War II (actually he was in the Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps during the war while a student at Yale).

"If he had the same Fascist principles then, and expressed them, he managed not to run afoul of naval intelligence. In 1946 and 1947, he served aboard the flagship of the Byrd Antarctic Expedition as a communications officer."

Thompson's committee will have branches in Los Angeles, Chicago and either Atlanta or Nashville, Thompson said.

JERSEYAN IS ADVISER

Another Jerseyan, Edward A. Fleckenstein, Weehawken lawyer and president of the Voters Alliance for Americans of German Ancestry, is the committee's political adviser.

Executive secretary is Frederick C. F. Weiss, who runs the Le Blanc Publishing Co., a pro-German Nationalist firm. The West Coast director is James R. White, editor of "Reason," a Los Angeles periodical.

Closely associated with Thompson is a group of clergymen, teachers and political pamphleteers, most of whom have been publicly identified with Nationalist German causes.

AGENT FOR REICH PARTY

Thompson's past activities give a fair clue to the political trend of the new committee. He was the registered American agent for the Socialist Reich Party in West Germany until it was outlawed several months ago. In Thompson's words, the SRP embodied the best of the program of Adolf Hitler's Third Reich.

Thompson also headed a committee that worked for the liberation of all German war criminals. Thompson held, and still does, that they were convicted on fraudulent evidence—from Herman Goering and Rudolph Hess down to the lowest corporal.

Thompson seems to thrive on criticism and attacks. He says his phones are tapped and he is shadowed and spied upon. West Germany's Bonn Government, which he calls a puppet of the United States, sent an agent here just to spy on him, he says.
